European Lore: Sociology.

As I found out, my initial definition of the EQ (or European Quotient) was not accurate enough. The actual formula should be: $EQ = CQ + AQ^2$. Where CQ = Cocksucking Quotient and AQ is the Assfucking quotient. The EQ defines your overall rank in European society and affects you on all levels and at all times.

The AQ actually... More

And to make it clear for ABSOLUTELY everyone but the Europeans (the Europeans will always come up with bullshit and schizophrenify that I am not) - EUROPE IS MY ENEMY (enemy of the THIRD (ANUS) REICH). Whatever they say and do is antagonistic and bullshit. I wish to have NOTHING to do with Europe anymore, but they basically keep me hostage here - as stated before. So, again you European retards - the stuff you are using day and night (the "cognitive radio" stuff) actually involves an ACTIVE SCANNING process. Now what does that mean? The EM tech is so ubiquitous in Europe that it can never be removed again without destroying the whole area. Do not worry about destroying Europe, it needs to be destroyed anyway. Unless Europe would accept living without electricity forever and actually do so. Then things could be done more gradually. But as Europe is, peaceful methods are out of question, as the last couple of years have dramatically shown.

Regarding the nature of "Fleshball": a chaotic, flesh and fucking oriented meta pattern/being of its own that originates from the interplay of "Fleshball" infrastructure (EM tech) and the minds and bodies of those caught up in it. Has its own dynamics, even though very primitive and repetitive. Europe is the prime example of a fleshballed nation/continent. Completely schizophrenic and fucked up.

And btw... as I have seen the "Overlord" question being raised in America (very good) - but answered with classic Russophobia (wrong) - one clarification: the answer cannot be found by thinking in classical pictures. You need to think in a very different way to get close to the actual answer. The rats are part of the army, but who are the overlords?

Definition lore (rat tribes):

To continue my onslaught of definitions - two of the dominant European rat tribes, that are remarkably similar but still different, shall be named:

.) Merkolandies - led by a rat queen - The famous German chancellor Miss Merkel. Fat old, disgusting retard bitches with fag minds and great interest in perversions and... More

Definition lore (new definition):

To understand Europe's workings you need to generalize the concept of IQ, or more generally and accurately - intelligence - to include the negative side of the scale. The positive and negative definitions shall be as such:

.) Negative Intelligence: the process of automatically creating more mental chaos (nonsense)... More

China's anti-corruption drama magnifies Chinese political culture

CCTV

China state-controlled media · April 17, 2017 at 9:25 AM ·

"In the Name of the People" offers viewers, particularly foreigners, an opportunity to better understand China's politics and culture and also the nation's iron-fist resolve in the fight against corruption among the country's political and business elites.

Yeah... The Viennese are of course super dark "magic" and Voodoo people... They just zap around hell like. Also called "Spalliere" here in German speaking Europe... Especially "Arschspalliere"... Europe is very gay.Makes me wanna puke regregularly and makes me VERY angry. The fucked up gays never stop... 'coz they just don't wanna.... Yeah, Europe is butthole dark! <https://open.spotify.com/track/1dWteEXxzhg5xGNZZ6dJQX>

The assroaches show the classical symptoms of a sexual feedback loop in overdrive. They are sick and have more than one screw loose. The em tech makes them even worse. Castration would not be enough to cure them. Give them anti-stimulants as medication.

Btw.: a thought from yesterday: people who are similarly affected by em raying should pool together as they can reduce each other's risk. As they always use all equipment that is in range on you. If you are close enough the equipment will either be divided, which I doubt, or it will create some kind of deadlock/targeting problem, at least on some... More

Oh btw. regarding killing: almost got thrown off a ledge at Westbahnhof ~45 minutes ago. Would have fallen 3-4 meters. Definitely would have given my skull the rest. I was very cogently shouting that yes, you should give me my stuff back when 3 adolescents sneaked up from behind and one actually threw me behind the fence of the ledge. I was able to grab the fence luckily, else that would have been it. An absolute killing attempt. How more absolute does it have to become? Where was the police then and afterwards? Huh? Give me back my stuff.

Btw. They are constantly talking about a "points" system like in a videogame, which fits the view they want to uphold that this is some kind of "game" - which of course they always win. They get points for zapping a person, killing it and of course info they find etc. Could also hint at an illegal currency system they use to get some stuff - like pick a prize - TV, car whatever. A "candy" though is a valuable person. Has different names, can also be a "diamond", a "cake", a "whale" etc...

EM-Feedbacking: they scan your body/brain, take any change of that and feedback something (a zap of some kind or UV light) back to the body/brain. To test how severely you get feedbacked the best way is to put in ear-plugs and turn up music on high volume. Music Wumpscut/NineInchNails works quite well as you will be able to discern different... But a good method for testing it you get feedbacked. Harms others as well, all the time, you idiots, not just the primary target as the radiation shoots through basically everything...

People... This is not a "fight" what you are doing. This is just getting butchered by the butchering machine that is Europe... You people usually just say "Hey, can we butcher too?". As long as the Europeans can butcher they obviously do not care about getting butchered... But note that yes, not all get equally and similarly butchered...

An addition regarding fake placement: the difference between a fake placement case and a simple doppelganger case is: the fake placement aims at replacing a source person with one or more copy persons while trying to hide that source/copy relationship (and often the source person as well). A doppelganger case is usually natural and unintentional,... More

While I think, in principle, a meeting in Slovenia is better than in Vienna, I personally think the time has come for more creative solutions. Could be a small uninhabited island, something like that. For important political meetings this is actually a must. Don't forget your EMI shields at least 4 hours before the meeting, also during, and 4 hours after. Drink afterwards. Recommended. Cool down, overwrite with emotional info.

More breaking news: the very well adapted German Reichsvolk has become so precise as to demand a more specific definition of a female woman. It is exactly this bravery that will lead the German Volk to success! A female woman, as was not clearly defined, is not a female man but to be defined as such: a female woman that was born with at least all... More

More breaking old news: Die Urlaubslager, in welche manche unserer deutschen Sozialfälle gebracht werden, wurden ausschließlich für die Erholung unserer Hilfsbedürftigen gedacht und werden ausschließlich für diesen Zweck verwendet. Gerüchte, welche üble Schlangenzungen verbreiten, um die Großzügigkeit des deutschen Volkes in Frage zu stellen, dienen nur dazu, um uns, das große Deutsche Volk, zu entzweien. Das dürfen und werden wir nicht zulassen!

The Europeans indeed think they are the safe ones and party themselves hard all the time. They never take responsibility for their actions, they always point left or right. Scapegoating is absolutely normal in Europe.

Defiler Lore (accumulated through getting defiled, but not successfully (else I would not be alive anymore)): mainstream refers to the mainstream (mass) defilement system which coincidentally coincides with the smart city system(s). A.k.a. Fleshball (my term for it). True defilement in the defilement sense refers to quite other things, but death is usually a huge portion of it.

Auch die katholische Kirche, zumindest die Erzdiözese Wien scheint ein eifriger Unterstützer der sogenannten Reaping Lines zu sein. Bisher 100% der Caritas Unterbringungen extra ausgestattet und das Personal darin geschult. Ich schätze einmal, dass der Gedanke ist, die armen Leute möglichst frühzeitig näher zu Gott zu bringen - also in den Himmel zu zersprageln. Anussa ist auch dort bereits stark vertreten und unterstützt. Ist das denn so gewollt lieber Papst?

Another dreadful night and numerous life threatening zapping attacks on me later - one zap was ultra strong and only missed the spine by a millimeter or so. Attempted severe spinal cord injury. I definitely think that this could be a major cause or is somehow related to Parkinson's disease. When you have a mixture of broad area high frequency baking (wyvern) and strong zapping the symptoms may fit very well at the start of the disease.

Who would have thought? After game design my next area of work would be in Reaping Line Investigations. A rather peculiar and somewhat dangerous subject. If my wallposts sound interesting to you - holisticfist@protonmail.ch or the TelNr.+43 6886 464 8934 are ways to establish contact. Be aware that emails may not arrive - so if you want to make sure better make a call.

Well, the European Nazi Zombie army put all effort into developing and spreading the Zersprargling-Tech. So they built a huge Arschfotzen-Spalierpfosten Armee that will hide, run away and suck cock as soon as electricity is gone. Europe stands no chance whatsoever in a real war. So they fight a Fotzenkrieg that has most likely cost million of lives already. It is all getting absolutely fascist and insane and ever more so. Declare war, they will cry and beg for mercy.

"Adolf, unser im Himmel,

Geheiligt werde dein Pimmel,

Dein Reich komme,

Dein Wille geschehe,

Konzentrationslager schenke uns wie immer,

Unseren täglichen Lutsch gib uns heute,

Und wir vergeben uns unsere Schuld,

So auch wir vergeben uns, den Schuldigern,

So lass uns Tag und Nacht sie all' zersprageln,

Damit wir auch alle schnell los werden,

Heil!"

The EMI/RF signals can for sure be easily detected, buying a proper detector costs a couple of hundred euros though... Shielding from it is by far not easy and basically impossible at the moment if you have to live a "normal" life despite all that EM interference shit going on... expect that you would have to pay a couple of thousand euros just to have a basically EMI shielded static shelter

If you look at the internet backbone map of Europe it becomes apparent how easy it would be to isolate Iceland (in this case for the better - of which I am pretty sure) in comparison to mainland Europe (Iceland is part of the EEG and has applied for EU membership).

Btw. when you see car/vehicle lights that look a bit like that better be careful. Sometimes the modern vehicles frontlights can be altered/turned up and made to emit harmful radiation. One almost burnt out my right eye once - yes, there is super crazy shit going on.
