Final Interplanetary Update: all planets with a connection to Earth (shitplanet) that still bullshit and laugh about this get quarantined and marked for death like Earth. A scourgerplanet network.... All infected planets must be destroyed like infected cells.

Final Planetary Update: all licenses retracted forever. I demand the price of failure to be paid, or it has to be suspected that all you other planetaries are failures as well. Then the whole shitfuckedup planet of shit has to go. Fine with me as well.

A short summary of what happened and how things came to be - about 60 years ago Poohukind started using the EM tech to invade individuals' bodies and brains. After decades of roaching down peoples and animals there was talk of a somehow special child that would do something special. By coincidence that child was of true Mankind/something like the "... For now that concludes this batch of updates and insights. Life on this planet is pointless until Poohukind dies. That's it folks. I hope you all die soon.

The library that I have been posting out of is now super HF equipped and it really hurts. Well done shitkind.... and regarding the true Mankinders, probably they were all assassinated or fled underground. Probably none alive no more. So much about that shitlings and shitniggers. I'll sign your death sentence without a single bit of hesitation. Die Shitkind.

INTERPLANETARY RELEVANCE: regarding the universal energy loss and dragdown: since Poohukind is absolutely abusing the Grid to the maximum everyone caught up in it gets his/her mind read, distributed and interfered with. In maximum cases such as me the whole body/brain gets permanently scanned and all data is freely dispersed over the whole planet.... More

Update: yesternight the following of relevance occurred: a human voice saying: "And even though you people were exactly told when to light the fire for him (me) you did not do anything!". So I asked myself: what fire? And what was it meant for? A question asked afterwards by the same voice was: "What do you people think were all the crop circles for?". Oh well, still have no answer regarding the meaning of the fire that should have been ignited for me.

And one last remark: as champion of Mankind - a role I was offered and I accepted - all this has been won. The decision has been made, the ascendant is Mankind. Now that Poohukind still will not accept this judgement and still tries to kill Mankind there are only two paths left how this can work out and end in: the eradication of Poohukind on Earth... How surprising... just after my previous posts Poohukind tried again extra hard to kill me. That is how honorable they have always been... STRATEGIC WAR COMMAND & ADVICE: dismantle all of their fake society top down. Remove the public facing officials first and the police force. Lets end this sick puppet theater finally. I have granted warfare licenses for System to everyone but Poohukind, they override anyway. And by the way Poohukind: you have been banned from this planet before already. Happy crumbling, shitflies.

Poohukind always answers to all my sayings and complaints: "Well Martin, then kill us.". Damn right I say, believe me that I would if I could. You really need to kill each and every one of them. This Poohukind World really deserves an Urotsukidoji style ending. And if I had to do it all myself again... I would volunteer.

Today a more detailed definition of calentrophy and some more info about Poohukind's kind of calentrophy. Basically calentrophy can be seen as a state of mind that either occurs naturally out of a race's breed or as a consequence of a brain disease or a combination of both.
